PASSION & DESIRE

"If your going to learn anything, you need mic time: Mike gives that to you plus a lot of important feedback ... you "GO-TO" teacher."

Keith Brown

"Mike encourages while he provides direction and instruction to students at all levels of experience. He helped me feel comfortable during the intimidating learning process behind a microphone. Mike limits his students to 8 so all get his personal attention. Less experienced students are comfortably combined with advanced in all sessions. As a beginner this was extra helpful to hear what advanced callers focus on. This was an extraordinary program. I am grateful to have attended."

Why is this called the “Straddle Callers School”?

Answer: Aromas straddles the border of the two counties, with Monterey County to the west and San Benito County to the east. The Santa Cruz County line is less than a mile to the northwest, and Santa Clara County is about two miles to the north.

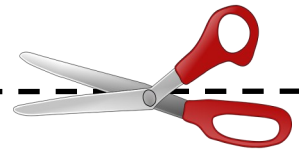

We thought this was an interesting fact about Aromas.
